

FEMA MAY CONTACT YOU

FEMA may call, text, or email you to follow up on your disaster assistance application.

- FEMA representatives will always provide their name, affiliation, reason for the call, callback number (either 800-621-3362 or another) and other relevant information.
- Text message and email will include the reason for contacting you.
- FEMA will need to verify your identity to discuss your application

Verification Questions Include

- Last 4 digits of the applicant or co-applicant's Social Security number
- Current mailing address
- Damaged dwelling address
- Current phone number

FEMA will never ask you for money for services.

FEMA